GOVERNOR CHARLES S. DENEEN IS FIGHTING NIGHT AND DAY TO RIDE THE POLITICAL WAVES.

AND HIS HEADQUARTERS IN THE LA SALLE HOTEL ARE CONSTANTLY CROWDED BY HIS FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS WHO LOOK UPON HIM AS A WINNER.

HON. SAMUEL ALSCHULER CONTINUES TO MAKE INROADS ON HIS DEMOCRATIC COMPETITORS FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP OF ILLINOIS.

AND HIS HEADQUARTERS IN THE LA SALLE HOTEL ARE THE SCENES OF MUCH ACTIVITY ON THE PART OF HIS MANAGERS AND SUPPORTERS WHO SCENT VICTORY IN THE AIR FOR HIM.

AND MANY AFRO-AMERICANS ARE COMING OUT IN THE OPEN FOR HIM.

L. W. WASHINGTON IS IN CHARGE OF HIS BRANCH HEADQUARTERS AT 3123 S. STATE STREET, AND IS DOING EFFECTIVE WORK FOR HIM.

STATE'S ATTORNEY JOHN E. W. WAYMAN IS ATTRACTING LARGE CROWDS AT HIS MEETINGS THROUGHOUT ILLINOIS AND HIS FRIENDS LOOK UPON HIM AS AN EASY WINNER FOR THE NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

HON. EDWARD D. GREEN STARTS HIS SHORT AND SHARP FIGHT FOR RE-ELECTION TO THE LEGISLATURE OF ILLINOIS FROM THE FIRST SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

ALDERMAN MICHAEL McINERNEY AND HIS FRIENDS ARE CONFIDENT THAT HE WILL BRUSH BY THE PRIMARIES TUESDAY, APRIL 9TH, AND BE ELECTED TO CONGRESS FROM THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

MILES J. DEVINE, EX-CITY ATTORNEY OF CHICAGO, IS DESTINED TO CAPTURE THE NOMINATION AT THE PRIMARIES TUESDAY, APRIL 9, FOR STATE'S ATTORNEY OF COOK COUNTY.

The Democratic and Republican candidates in this city and throughout this state are waking up and are beginning to get mighty active in their political fights for supremacy in their efforts to secure the nominations at the primaries Tuesday, April 9, for the various positions and good fat jobs that are in sight this coming fall.

Governor Charles S. Deneen, has put on a pair of his old time boxing gloves and he is fighting night and day in order to continue to successfully ride the Republican political waves.

His headquarters in the La Salle Hotel are constantly crowded all the time by his friends and supporters who look upon him as a winner. Tuesday, April 9, His meetings which he is holding in all parts of the state are well attended, showing that he still stands high in the estimation of the people of Illinois.

Hon. Samuel Alschuler, who is one of the most popular men in this state, who is always there with the glad hand and with his William J. Bryan smile to all comers, for it makes no slight difference to him whether or not those he comes in contact with are rich or poor white or black, high or low, he smiles and warmly grasps them by the hand. Just the same, continues to make inroads on his Democratic competitors for the nomination for the Governorship of Illinois.

Right at this point it is pleasing to note that many Afro-Americans—those belonging to the better class and not the beggars and no account class, are willingly coming out in the open for him and L. W. Washington, who is the right man in the right place is in charge of his branch headquarters at 3123 South State street and is doing effective work for him, among the Colored population in this city, and his work will reach out to all the Colored voters throughout Illinois.

State's Attorney, John E. W. Wayman, is attracting large crowds at his meetings in the various parts of the state, and the people seem to be delighted to hear him discuss some of the most important questions of today which in some way or other is the concern of every citizen in this state and some of them must be settled at the polls this coming November, and no question about it his friends look upon him as an easy winner for the nomination for Governor.

Hon. Edward D. Green, who is one of the very best Afro-Americans that has ever been a member of the Legislature of Illinois, and who always has had the united support of the best element of both races in his district and always endorsed by the daily press and the legislative voter's league, has started in on his short and sharp fight for re-election to the legislature of Illinois from the First Senatorial district and according to our way of thinking no one will be able to head him off at the primaries Tuesday, April 9.

Alderman Michael McInerney and his friends and head shouters are confident that he will brush by the primaries, Tuesday, April 9, and be elected to Congress from the Fourth Congressional District.

The present Congressman, who has not accomplished anything worthy to be mentioned for the people residing in the district for the past six years and he and one or two boys who would like to draw the salary as a would be congressman, will be routed and a new Congressman in the person of Alderman McInerney will be elected and he will be amply able to accomplish something for those he will represent in the lower house of Congress, aside from drawing his salary and answering present at roll call.

Miles J. Devine, ex-city attorney of Chicago, is destined to capture the nomination at the primaries, Tuesday April 9, for State's attorney of Cook County; there are many voters in this city who feel, that in consideration for the many good and telling licks that Mr. Devine, put in last spring for Mayor Carter H. Harrison, that the "Man of Destiny," should be with him tooth and nail in his manly fight for State's Attorney.

HON. EDWARD D. GREEN.

Republican candidate for re-nomination at the primaries, Tuesday, April 9th and re-election to the legislature of Illinois from the 1st Senatorial district.

MAJOR ROBERT R. JACKSON.

Major Robert R. Jackson, was born in Chicago, Sept. 1, 1874, and is a product of the public schools of this city. ### THE PRIMARY LAW—ITS PURPOSES AND THE OPPORTUNITY IT AFFORDS THE NEGRO

Perhaps never before in the history of the Negro voters of any community was an opportunity presented more pregnant with possibilities than the one now confronting the Negroes of Chicago and Illinois, in the impending primary contest, which will culminate in the nomination of men for office throughout the state, April 9th next.

Heretofore the opportunity of the Negro to get upon a ticket was dependent upon the pleasure of some one group of men known as bosses or political masters, and placing of the Negro's name upon the ballot as a nominee was seldom the result of merit, fitness or the recommendation of a majority of the Negroes themselves, but purely as a question of expediency to win votes for the ticket, so that in the past in every respect the Negroes thus nominated have been a negative force, seeking to please masters rather than the people, but now, since the enactment of the present primary law, every race and every group of men, regardless of the attitude of the political bosses toward them, have an opportunity to place one of their kind upon the ballot, and the person receiving the highest number of votes for any given position of the many positions to be filled will be declared the nominee. There are about 20,000 Negro voters in Cook County. If this vote was centered upon some one candidate or group of candidates for certain positions to be filled, it would be such an aid that it would be impossible, almost, to encompass their defeat. For instance, if a Colored candidate for office starts out with 20,000 votes to the good he will finish in a two-to-one shot as winner, so there is an opportunity for the Negroes to select and concentrate their votes upon a man of the race for the position of County Commissioner, and as the best fitted, best known and most likely the best vote getter stands the best chance of utilizing this opportunity to the race, we urge that Bureau regard Fritz Mosely receive the vote and support of every man, and regardless of color, who belongs to the Republican party, April 9th.

ALDERMAN MICHAEL McINERNEY.

Extremely popular with all classes and nationalities, composing his constituents in the 30th ward and Democratic candidate for congressman in the 4th congressional district who will triumph over all of his competitors at the primaries, Tuesday, April 9th.
